CHRISTMAS PRESENT

SATIRE BY PETER C. VEY

"Oh, Tom! This is wonderful! How did you know I wanted a Christmas present?"

"How do you think I pay for all those fucking toys?"

"I hope you like it. My first husband threw it back in my face."

"This year, Robert and I are just exchanging bullets."

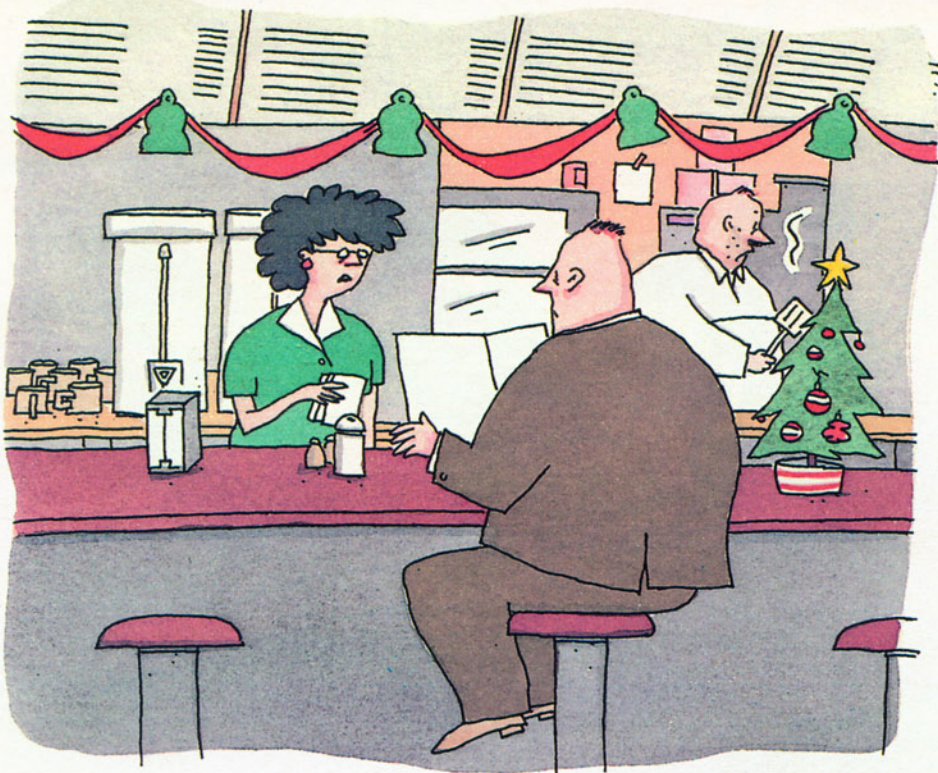

"I'm leaving you, George, and I'm taking the holidays with me."

HOLIDAY SUICIDE HOTLINE

AT THE TONE LEAVE YOUR NAME, NUMBER AND A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF
WHY YOU'RE ALL ALONE AND NOBODY LIKES YOU,
YOU STUPID LITTLE WORTHLESS PIECE OF FILTH!

"The Christmas special is just like the Sunday special, only more depressing."

"Honey, get the kids and come in here! I'm going to ignite the tree!"

DOMINIQUE

"Whatever you do, don't say anything about his size."

DOMINANT TRAITS

Our friend Dominique doesn't like taking orders. But at the office, it's always, "Dominique, bring me a cup of coffee," or "Dominique, I need this sent out by three o'clock." Their wish is her command. So when the weekend staggers around, she practices a little role reversal. . . .

Wardrobe and accessories by Dream Dresser, Pennsauken, N.J.

"If you want to play my game," she insists, "you follow my rules. But if you're a really good competitor, there's a chance I can be subdued."

At home, Dominique prefers to take the driver's seat, though special "friends" are always welcome along for the ride. She'll take you places you've never been before, and she guarantees that the view is breathtaking.

A consummate gourmet, Kirsten's quests for gustatory perfection have led her to locales as diverse as the French Riviera, the Swiss Alps, Katmandu, and Coney Island, New York. "That's when I had this amazing craving for a hot dog," she says. "When it comes to food—as with everything—I just can't settle for anything less than best!"

KIRSTEN

"I guess I'm like a scorpion—I'm resourceful, move quickly, and have a bit of a sting. I'm intense, determined, and secretive—although I always make my feelings known!"

"Taking control of this huge animal galloping beneath you at really high speed gives you a strange sense of power."

HIGHLAND FLINGS

Keeping up with Kirsten Stewart, our 22-year-old December Pet of the Month, is like running a mile a minute. She keeps you gasping for air. Born and raised in Scotland, Kirsten recently found new digs in London, where she's just begun a lucrative modeling career. "It's definitely the place for me," she confides in her bubbly brogue. "After standing still on shoots all day, there's nothing I like more than going on a glorious shopping spree or club-hopping all night. I definitely have the energy—I only wish I had more time!" However, she does admit getting homesick on occasion. "There's nothing more soothing to body and soul than the serenity of the Highland moors or the beauty of Loch Ness," she sighs, before adding impetuously, "By the way, I do know what Scotsmen wear under their kilts—but I'm not telling!"

PRODUCED AND PHOTOGRAPHED
BY MAY AUSTEN AND JACK HARRISON

"You're always invited to come out of the winter's chill and tag along," says Dominique. "As long as you're willing to follow my lead, we'll heat up the night together." O+

"I don't live my life by the stars, but I do consider myself a typical Scorpio," Kirsten confesses. "I guess I'm like a scorpion—I'm resourceful, move quickly, and have a bit of a sting. I'm intense, determined, and secretive—although I always wind up making my feelings known!"

Swimming keeps 38-24-36 Kirsten in shape, but she also enjoys soccer, skiing, and horseback riding. "Taking control of this huge animal galloping beneath you at really high speed gives you a strange sense of power."

Hair and makeup by Claire Stevens.

"Scorpio is a water sign," Kirsten explains, "so I really feel at home in the ocean." She's just returned from scuba diving in Aruba. "I'd spend hours contemplating life on the ocean floor, then come back a whole new person!"

"There are times when I'd like nothing more than to curl up with some Robert Burns and a glass of Bordeaux," she confesses. "But then the travel bug bites me, and I'm off on another fling!"

MISS KIRSTEN STEWART/PENTHOUSE PET OF THE MONTH

INTO THE WOODS

The chemistry was wrong. That's what the director told the romantic leads in his erotic costume epic. After the 25th retake, he ordered them away to explore and reevaluate their characters.

PRODUCED AND PHOTOGRAPHED BY CARL WACHTER

After retreating to a secluded glade, Scott and Lynn summoned all the tools of their craft—visualization, improvisation. Interestingly, it was the tactile exercises that worked best.

Hair and makeup by Bobby Flint, Hollywood, Calif.

"I think I know why you're blocked," Lynn whispered to her leading man. "You've got to relax. . . . Pretend I'm your real-life lover and act naturally. . . ."

PLAYING TO WIN

European women learn at an early age that subtlety and nuance are alluring. Solange was clearly no exception. "Self-confidence begins with the mind and moves down and out from there, and I think sexual awareness and sensuality work the same way," she tells us. "They really make a woman beautiful." An eye-catching, heart-stopping 35-23-35, Solange was born in the Lake Geneva area of Switzerland, but more recently she has been mesmerizing the fortunate men living on Lake Zurich. Solange unwinds by challenging her computer to a cutthroat game of chess. "Chess requires concentration, careful planning, and strategy," she says. "It's like a medieval battlefield within this civilized world we live in."

The actors finally became one with their roles, delivering a performance
so natural that even the Bard himself would have approved.

Although she did participate in beauty pageants as a teenager, Solange, now 21, is a recent but very successful arrival on the modeling scene. "Appearing in Penthouse is much more fun. Being able to open up and express myself completely is an incredible experience."

SOLANGE

“Appearing in Penthouse is much more fun than beauty contests. Being able to open up and express myself completely is an incredible experience.”

"Inner strength is more important for women than men," she says. "Thankfully, a great many men find an intelligent woman with a mind of her own to be extremely appealing."

Solange, already fluent in three languages, is patiently biding her time until she can develop a private language of love with one special man.
